

ESTABLISHED 1882.
The Oxford Democrat.
ISSUED TUESDAYS.

South Paris, Maine, January 23, 1923

Page 2

ATWOOD & FORBES,
Editors and Proprietors.
GEORGE M. ATWOOD, A. E. FORBES.

PRICE-$1.00 a year if paid strictly in advance.
Otherwise $2.00 a year.
ADVERTISEMENTS—All legal advertisements are given three consecutive insertions for $1.00 per insertion, and $1.00 per insertion for trade made with local, transient and yearly advertisers.

JOE FURRING—New type, fast presses, electric power, experienced workmen and low prices combine to make this department of our busi-

THE OXFORD BEARS.
THE DOINGS OF THE WEEK IN ALL SECTIONS OF THE COUNTY.

Paris Hill.

Services at Paris Hill Baptist church every Sunday at 10:45. Sunday School at 12:30. Sunday evening services at 7:30 o'clock.

We are glad to report that Austin Stearns, Jr., who has been seriously ill, is steadily gaining.

Mrs. Fred Sorrells entertained a large number of friends on Saturday at her elegant one-pipe furnace. One is assured of a warm welcome whatever the weather may be, at Mrs. and Mrs. Sorrells charming home now.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Abbott, Ralph Abbott were with Mrs. Abbott's uncle, William Gray of South Paris.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bennett were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Abbott Saturday.

Seward Stearns returned Wednesday to his work in Portland, after a few days spent with family.

Mr. Hubbard had over 150 doffoughts last week, to say nothing of the numerous pies and cakes she baked.

Napoleon Croteau is hauling sand for South Paris, Hovey's, St. Peter's, Stevens Pharmacy.

Novelty Drug Co.,

A. L. Clark Drug Co.,

Buckfield, Postmaster.

Paris Hill, Mrs. Mand Andrews, Post

West Paris, Samuel T. White.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Strand Theatre.

Merrill's Luncheonette.

Livery Stable.

F. M. & M. S. Richards.

The Electric Light Co.

Hill's Electric Shop.

Merchants' Association.

Lester C. Cushman.

Wanted.

Note.

Boston Globe.

Salemian Wanless.

Probate Notices.

20th Street.

For Sale.

Bankruptcy Petition for Discharge.

Bankruptcy Notice.

McPherson Co.

N. A. Cummings.

W. J. White & Co.

Here and There.

Joseph Holden, the Oxford philosopher, used to tour Oxford County, lecturing on the "World of Light." His chief reason was that the World of Light was as good to him as to subject matter and philosophy. He said the Bible said the earth had four corners, and that he could have such things. He also thought that if the ocean got on the under side of the earth, the water world would run over the sun and perhaps would mix up with the sun. Mrs. Volla says that larcenous current that no celestial inspector would permit it to run and so bring dire calamity on the universe. Undoubtedly he must get away, but there are others who help him. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Volva of Zion, Ill., is one of the now occupying the lecture stage in the west. He says that the sun and stars are dangerous, "good for seducing demons" and he would do away with such text books. Geographers say one can sail around the earth; Volva says one can sail around the world. This is a week.

Geographers say ships disappear a few miles out at sea; Volva says a man will disappear two miles out on a due north course. He says a ship can sail in a straight direction for 100 miles if they keep on long enough, will arrive at the port of departure; Volva says they can't sail straight. They have to go around Africa and South America. That, he says, proves the world is an island.

It seems the world moves all right.

Electrification of railroads has been the talk of scientists and railroad men for a good many years. There are no power lines have attempted change for steam.

Branch lines have been electrified, and sections of railroad systems, notably the New Haven, are in the big city, but now the Santa Fe is the one that is flying its line between Kansas City and the Pacific coast. S. J. Kase of Los Angeles has prepared plans for this change and there is general interest. He proposes to use natural gas for generating electricity for the district from Kansas City to Albuquerque, New Mexico. The natural gas wells will furnish, it is estimated, 1,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily. Coal will be used in the district between Albuquerque and the Grand Canyon, and from that comes the Pacific water power will be employed.

The 217th anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin in Boston was observed last week by the post office department in the issue of a new series of one-cent postage stamps, his portrait thereon. Franklin's portrait appears upon the present eight-cent stamp, but that on the one-cent stamp is a new one. The first edition of the new stamp will be placed in the collection of the Philadelphia post office in recognition of the home of the first postmaster general. The first sixteen sheets will be put on sale at a good local philatelic agency in Washington. Other sheets will not be supplied with the new stamp, until the reserve supply of the old issue is exhausted.

There are times when one man seems to be worth more than a hundred. The Bangor & Aroostook Railroad came to the conclusion some little time ago that it could not afford the twelve-mile branch from Bowdoinville to the Aroostook Works so discontinued service. However, he however, thought he could run it; so he hired the whole road for one hundred dollars a month, and then had it felled with flange wheels over the turn rails. Business has been so good that he had to add a trailer. Just how the snow has affected his train has not been learned.

New York city probably has more different kinds of churches within its limits than any other city in the world, and goes right on adding to its collection. A church that has just been added, a Korean church, with a Korean pastor, and with Korean hymns. Of course the service is in Korean.

Oxford County Notes.

Among the appointments by Governor Baxter last week was that of Frank L. Levitt of Rumford for notary public.

William W. Gallagher, formerly of Norway but for some time legal adviser of the federal prohibition office in Maine with headquarters in Auburn, is to be retained in his present position, it had been the intention of the Washington office to withdraw Mr. Gallagher from the state on account of a shortage of funds. He has been retained for his services in other sections of the country. The Director Seth May wrote Senator Bainbridge that he would like to retain him in the state as his services were greatly needed. The state did not touch with Federal Prohibition Directors, who gave an order for his retention.

Addison Hamlin, whose death occurred recently in Scranton, Pa., was the son of the late Gen. Charles Hamlin of Bangor, and a graduate of Hampden Hall, West Point, and the University of Harvard, and of Harvard, in the same class with his brother, the late Charles E. Hamlin, and the late Frank Hamlin, their son, Charles Hamlin of South Paris, causing some mystification, of relationship of Exeter fitting school. Mr. Hamlin was a chemist of rare promise until his death, which was sudden, and was ended by an unfortunate accident, occurring in Germany while pursuing advanced chemical research there, terminating in blood poisoning and a shock of paralysis dislocating his left side.

The Oxford Democrat.

Services at Paris Hill Baptist church every Sunday at 10:45. Sunday School at 12:30. Sunday evening services at 7:30 o'clock.

Fred M. Cooper died at his home Sunday night, Jan. 14. District Deputy

H. H. Washburn was quite sick the night, so he was unable to work the next

Wednesday.

H. H. Washburn was taken very sick

Wednesday night. The doctor was called about four o'clock in the morning and came with him several hours. He is now much better.

There was a good attendance at the Rebekah installation Wednesday afternoon, and the installation of Odd Fellows Lodge. The Oyster supper at Annie Hazelton recently received a lot of new goods.

Sidney Hatch was taken with a severe attack of stomach Saturday and Saturday night. It is a little more comfortable.

Wednesday night he received a lot of new goods.

H. H. Washburn is on the sick list.

Thelma Morse is on the sick list.

The grange installed their officers Saturday. The grange travel was very bad, but there was a lot out and a good time was enjoyed.

Lizzie Morse is visiting her sons and families for a few days.

Fred Hatch was at home from Fred

Hatch's the last of the week sick with a cold.

Littlefield Littlefield is better, so she is going to school.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

attending the installation Saturday, and

the dance in the evening.

Mrs. Howard Allen stayed at

Nora Abbott's Saturday night, after

SOUTH PARIS.

Mrs. Lucy Titus was in Bryant's Pond Wednesday.

Charles W. Cummings of Hebron was in the village Wednesday.

Dr. E. P. Goddard of Lewiston, district health officer, was in the village and Norway Thursday.

L. L. Russell has sold the Hotel Arden every table service to J. M. Dohm, who will continue to run the stable.

Miss Beryl A. Knight has been here for a few days from Cape Neddick, account of the illness of her brother, E. W. Knight.

There will be a business meeting of the Congregational Social Circle at the vestry Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. All members please come.

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hayes went to Boston Saturday, where they will remain for a time while Mr. Hayes receives medical treatment for a trouble in his throat.

Mrs. Beryl Silver is taking a vacation from her work in the office of the Kep & Fletcher Co., and is spending two weeks of the time in Portland with her sister.

The Optimist Club meets with Mrs. George F. Morton Saturday afternoon, and a covered dish supper will follow the meeting. It is hoped all the Optimists will be present.

An error in the age was made in the Democrat last week in the announcement of the birth of Miss Joann A. Whitman. Miss Whitman lacked only a few days of being 31 years of age.

Frank D. Frazee was in Detroit, Mich., last week with other Maine dealers, attending a meeting of Hudson and Essex dealers. They were shown over the factories, and attended lectures and entertainments.

Arthur G. Staples of Lewiston, who is president of the Community Club, Thayer, Jan. 23, Schenectady, "The New Woman." Mr. Staples is editor of the Lewiston Journal, and his writings in that widely read paper are highly appreciated by his countrymen.

The atmospheric condition we have been experiencing last week, the weather started in a storm, and staged another one for Thursday with a couple of inches difference between them, was indeed "unend" "day by day in every weather." The young gardener has been named Charles Sturtevant Partridge.

Be sure and plan to be the first one at the foot table at the big fair Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Lunches will be served any time from 4 to 6:30, consisting of soup, pie, beans, peas, beans, soup, macaroni and cheese, sandwich, cake and pie, and coffee.

Ralph R. Bates has purchased the hardware building and stock of Robert E. Shaw, and has taken possession. He will continue the plumbing and heating business in connection with the store.

Mr. Shaw has sold his hardware business over the stock for the present at least.

State Deputy Starfield is working here in the interests of The Macabees, one of the older, well-tried, fraternal beneficiary orders. Several business and professional men have become members, interested, as also have others. It is planned to organize a local tent (lodge) here on Monday evening, Jan. 29. St. D. C. Ward of Portland will be present.

The following pupils in the fourth grade have passed in spelling this week: Captain Seely, Gordon Thayer, Ruth Tyler, Marjory Powers, Earl Biggs, Arthur Haydon, Evelyn Record, Chester Pratt, Stanley Whitney, Shirley Dohm, Miford Chandler, Perle Svalow, Gifford, Frank Stiles, Ralph Stiles, Art Grant, Arline Milleit, Stevens Thomas, Ralph Corlies.

Some ten of the young people of the Universal Young People's Christian Union, with five of the older ones, attended the district meeting of the Union at Norway Saturday. The meeting was made on a horse sled. Rev. R. L. Books, national Y. P. C. U. missionary and superintendent of Universalist churches in Texas, gave a very interesting lecture on his work in that state.

Mr. Jessie C. Andrews, librarian of the Worcester City Library, made a lecture on the history of that institution. Arthur T. Thayer, F. S. Smith, H. M. Barnet, and Amos Barnes.

This is one of the prominent state societies in Washington with 237 members. Dr. Charles H. Dingley is president. When the Shakers from Maine visit Washington next June, the society will entertain them.

The following South Paris people have traveled to Washington, D. C., have been invited to the annual meeting of the Knights of Columbus at the national capital: Arthur T. Thayer, F. S. Smith, H. M. Barnet, and Amos Barnes.

This is one of the prominent state societies in Washington with 237 members. Dr. Charles H. Dingley is president. When the Shakers from Maine visit Washington next June, the society will entertain them.

The Rallie Club met at the home of Mrs. Chester Merrill Thursday afternoon. The ladies sewed during the afternoon and the usual covered dish supper was served at 6:30. At the business meeting in the evening it was voted to pay for having the piano tuned. The following committee was appointed as a subcommittee for January and February: Mrs. Lizzie Milleit, Mrs. Helen Briggs and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Oxford County Agricultural Society held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13. The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

Mr. Frank D. Frazee of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French instructor, and Homer G. Alford, football captain. Miss Edith Lovell was editor-in-chief with Miss Annie Cuthbert as assistant; Miss Doris Jones, literary editor; George editor; Miss Marjorie Hayes, art editor; Frank Maxim; athletic editor; Ronald Simpson, alumni editor; F. West and M. D. Pratt, business manager; Ralph C. Miller, assistant editor; and Mrs. Emma Mann.

The trustees of the Past Noble Grand Association held a meeting at the Oxford High School on Thursday, when the following items of business were fixed as Sept. 11, 12 and 13.

The only other business of general interest was a vote to move at the front of the grounds, along the Main Street fence, and place them below those now standing back of the grand stand, on the other side of the grounds.

The winter number of the Paris High School Chronicle is out. It contains sixty-four pages, is well written, and a tastefully gotten-up publication, containing editorials, literary matter, reports of school activities, and a list of the alumni for 1898. It contains pictures of the football team, portraits of Mr. George C. Miller, French

Winter Overhauling!

My shop will be open all winter for overhauling. Call and talk it over. I will do it by the job or hour with prices right.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

For sale: 1 Ford Touring Car, 1919; 1 Ford 1 1/2 ton Truck, 1918; 1 Buick Roadster, 1918. Radiator alcohol.

Nash Sales and Service Station

Stonybrook Garage

F. A. SHAW, Proprietor

Telephone 522-12

Nash Leads the World in Motor Car Values.

PARIS TRUST COMPANY

SOUTH PARIS, MAINE

BRANCH BANK AT BUCKFIELD, ME

PAYS INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

HILLS

Registered

and Optometrist
Optician

Eyes examined, glasses fitted, adjusted and repaired. Thirty-four years fitting eyes in Norway. We can duplicate your broken lenses no matter what fitted you. Everything optical. No fancy prices. Tortle lenses cost but few cents extra. Did you ever think that a first class Optician, Optometrist, or Oculist will not have to pay to have his glasses fitted? No! We fit your glasses! Take no chances on your eyes. See about your eyes! It's the best thing to do!

No drops or dangerous drugs in the examination of the eye. Office hours: 8:30 to 12:30—1:30 to 5 P. M. Monday and Saturday evenings. Other hours by appointment. Office phone 120-2. Residence phone 207-3.

185 Main Street

Opera House Block, Norway, Maine. Look for the "Clock in the steeple."

Don't Torture Your Feet—Men!

You never need endure the pain of cramped toes or any of the foot ills that vice-like shoes bring on. In Educator's feet grow as they should.

They will give you long wear and complete foot ease. Come to our store today and be fitted with a pair of Educator's—know what foot unconsciousness really means.

RICE & HUTCHINS

EDUCATOR SHOE

FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN

E. N. SWETT SHOE CO.

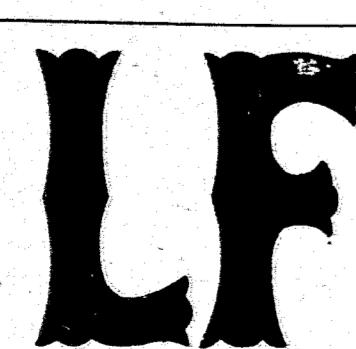

Norway, Maine

The COST of Sickness

Stop and think what sickness costs, and you will do your utmost to keep well. Besides physical discomfort, pain, misery, you lose money, time, and health from your everyday life. The cost of sickness is the cost of the body's organs of digestion and elimination assure good health. General J. F. A. Atwood Medicine will keep these organs in perfect condition and health.

L. F. MEDICINE CO., Portland, Maine

and of

Bank Book Lost

Notice having been given this Bank as required by law that Dercoll Book Number 9900 has been lost, and that the same has been reported to Alberta Page has been lost or destroyed, notice is hereby given that unless said lost book shall be presented to this office within 30 days from the date of this notice, the same will be sold and the law, a new book will be issued and the use of said book will be denied.

SOUTH PARIS SAVINGS BANK, BETHLEHEM, ME, TUESDAY, Jan. 6, 1920.

Bank Book Lost

Notice having been given this Bank as required by law that Dercoll Book Number 9900 has been lost, and that the same has been reported to Alberta Page has been lost or destroyed, notice is hereby given that unless said lost book shall be presented to this office within 30 days from the date of this notice, the same will be sold and the law, a new book will be issued and the use of said book will be denied.

SOUTH PARIS SAVINGS BANK, BETHLEHEM, ME, TUESDAY, Jan. 6, 1920.

HOMEMAKERS' COLUMN

Correspondence on topics of interest to the bather is solicited. Address: Editor HOMEMAKERS' COLUMN, Oxford Democrat South Paris, Me.

What Grandma Knows.

(By Anna Robinson.) The big car slid cautiously down the bumpy road and came to a reluctant stop where the road had come to a dead end. It was seven then. From either side grinned a delighted youngster, for hadn't they brought Grandma along? In the back seat Grandma stood indulgently. Youngsters piled out unmercifully, and with no less haste but considerable less speed Grandmother scurried after them, laughing happily. The seven-mile ride was over.

After a nice, hot supper and a comfy time exchanging health notes and such, everybody went to bed that evening. The big car had stopped before the narrow, dark tunnel. Grandma stood before me ready for what the night might bring forth.

"Eggs," she said, "I have a dozen eggs in the car, and I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." She had poached an egg in a case-stopper and a pock of salt when beanie on the table. "It like eggs for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, satisfied and pleased with whatever was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

With the first slice of the robin that uses our corner gable for his grandstand, the day was on. Who can sleep through the noise of a rooster? Not I. I dressed quickly, quieted and slipped downstairs and went about the business of making a fire. Below muffled steps crossed and recrossed the guest room, and the children were up. The first ones along the narrow hall, and Grandma stood before me ready for what the night might bring forth.

"Eggs," she said, "I have a dozen eggs in the car, and I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." She had poached an egg in a case-stopper and a pock of salt when beanie on the table. "It like eggs for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma, was provided; however, I happened to know that she had like eggs most morning.

"How do you like them?" I asked.

"Oh, and away. Sometimes I have a case of indigestion, but I'll boil them for breakfast." That was just like Grandma